

Gordon W. Arbogast
CV

Education Military decorations including: Defense Meritorious Service Medal, Legion of Merit, Bronze Star Medal w/Oak Leaf Executive Award, Meritorious Service Medal (2), Joint Services Commendation Medals, Army Commendation Medals (3) Ph.D. in Education, University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign (1983), (1986)
Ph.D. in Management Science, College of Management, University of Florida (1970), (1973)
Ph.D. in Mechanical Engineering, Georgia Institute of Technology (1968)
M.S. in Mechanical Engineering, Georgia Institute of Technology (1968)
M.S. in Business Administration, University of Virginia (1968)
US Army Career Course IV, 1998-1999, 2006-2007 and Graduate Honor Grad (1968) Lifetime Achievement Award (April 2018)
Professor of the Year, Adult Degree Program, 2000; Award for Innovative Excellence in Teaching, Learning and Technology, 2002.

Academic Experience

Associate Dean and Director of Graduate Programs, 2005- 2010; Department Head -Mgt, Decision Sciences and Info Mgt (2010-2014)
Professor of Management (Tenured), Jacksonville University, 1994-present
Permanent Associate Professor and Head, Department of Engineering, U.S. Military Academy, 1986-1989
Adjunct Professor of Management, Universities of Virginia and Maryland (1979-1983)
Assistant Professor of Electrical Engineering, Department of Elect. Engineering, U.S. Military Academy, 1970-1973

Teaching

Course Director at West Point (1972-1973). Taught engineering and new systems engineering courses at West Point (1987-1989). Taught five of the required core twelve courses in the JU Executive and Evening MBA programs (1994-present) and DBA course.

Curriculum Reform and the Integration of Technology

As Head of Engineering, initiated new systems engineering major at West Point (1987). While member of senior governance board at West Point (Academic Board), actively involved in major curriculum reform and reorganization i.e. deactivated Department of Engineering and participated in activating a new Department of Systems Engineering. Headed numerous curriculum reviews at JU.

Management/Consulting Experience

Command at all Army levels through battalion level (battalion commander in Germany 1978-1980). Deputy Project Manager of an Army $650 million computer project (1980-1982). Associate Director of Engineering, Technology and Strategic Planning for Defense Communications Agency (1989-1990). Vice President for Systems Technology, Pacific Bell (1990-1993). International consultant in Information Technology for Learning Tree International and Hong Kong Productivity Center. Consulted with a variety of local businesses to include Merrill Lynch, Stellar Group, Specialty Hospital, Jacksonville Jaguars, and Scott McCrae Group.

Publications

Numerous refereed publications in last ten years (e.g.: “Optimizing International Teams’ Effectiveness by Building Trust”, The Journal of American Academy of Business, Cambridge; “Predicting Non-Ferrous Metal Commodity Values as a Function of USA and China GDP”

, The Journal of Management and Engineering Integration, “The impact of gender and profit margin on the duration of hiring process for professional service firms”, Evidence-based HRM: a Global Forum for Empirical Scholarship, all in 2018).

University Service

Served on a variety of University and College of Business (COB

Miscellaneous

Avid sports fan especially in football, basketball and golf. Lettered at West Point in basketball. Assistant basketball coach at West Point (1987-1989) and at Jacksonville University (1994-1997). Jacksonville Jaguar season ticket holder (23 yrs.) and golf enthusiast.

Web Site: <http://users.ju.edu/garboga/>

