

Jacksonville University
Faculty

October 2020

Phin Feature

Justice Amy Coney Barrett's recorded session from 2016 at Jacksonville University has more than 740,000 Youtube views and has gained national attention. Barrett came to Jacksonville University Public Policy Institute to speak at the annual Hesburgh Lecture, sponsored by the Institute and Notre Dame Club of Greater Jacksonville. Each year, a speaker comes from Notre Dame to talk about issues such as the economy, the environment, national security, and in the case of Justice Barrett, the judiciary and constitutional law.

Dr. Mat Corrigan, Dean of the College of Arts & Sciences, has been participating in an ongoing series with Action News Jax to discuss the six amendments that Florida voters are voting on this election. You can view these videos on the Action News Jax website.

(pictured right)

Dr. Elaine Borne, Director of the Jacksonville University Health Center & Clinical Assistant Professor of Nursing, was selected as one of Jacksonville University's 2020 Alumni of Distinction.

(pictured left)

Dr. Nisse Goldberg, Professor of Biology & Marine Science, is a newly elected board member for the Tree Hill Nature Center.

Dr. Laura Atkins, Assistant Professor of Sociology, and students Michele Giunti and Alexis Smith had their article "Policy Point-Counterpoint: Can Colleges and Universities Maintain High Quality Connections with Students through Virtual Platforms?" published in International Social Science Review, Volume 96, Issue 3, Article 5.
(pictured left)

